POLICEMAN KILLED BY STRANGE MAN

Mysterious Murder of Chicago Officer Near His Home.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5 .- A member of the mounted police squad was killed early this morning, and in the death the police have a mysterious murder to solve.

The victim was Edward Smith, attached to the Austin police station, but detailed as one of the mounted officers in service in the downtown district. Smith was thirty-three years old and lived with his wife at 667 Warren avenue He was going home shortly after mid-night and when within a block of his house received the wound which ended his life.
After receiving the wound, Smith staggered home.

"That fellow shot me." the dying officer exclaimed to his wife, as he fell through the door. Before he could speak further he became unconscious. When a physician airlved he was dead.

FAIR TELEGRAPHER LOSES $800 AND JOB

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 5.-A telegraph company here has lost at least $500 through the confidence which its local manager, Miss Emma Fessler, reposed in a transient customer.

Isaiah Naylor, who has been selling various kinds of stocks to people here, came into the telegraph office a few days ago and instructed Miss Fessier to send a money order of about $800 to a party in New York city.

After it had been scnt, Mr. Naylor discovered that he had left his purse at his hotel. He said he would return soon, but has not done so, and cannot be found. It was too late for Miss Fessier to countermand payment of the profer, as Mr. Naylor's confederate in New York was waiting at the telegraph office for the money, and had pocketed Bishop Potter addressed a large asBemblage. He said, in part: "There are, as I look out toward our religious future, a note of menace: The growth of wealth, and the love of pleasure. The life of our forefathers was, compared with our modern habits and indulgence, and demands, an austere life. There was little to get and little to spend; and the conditions of life in the homes that first covered these hills and in the lives that were lived in them, were full of what we should call hardships and aprivation."

PITTSBURG IS SHOCKED; "THE BATH" FOR STAGE

PITTSBURG, Aug. 5 .- La Touche's masterpiece, "The Bath," is causing more trouble here. Modest Pittsburg has braced her feet for another shock, and drawing breath through her teeth. for it has been announced that tomorrow the much-talked-of and often-taboged picture, "The Bath," will be portrayed in a living picture at the Nixon Theater. Worse than that, it is to be in the "altogether."

Tille Devinney, of the London models, who will attempt to portray the fa-mous work of La Touche, is out in an mous work of La Touche, is out in an interview, saying that since she has seen the real painting, she does not think it would be fair to attempt to illustrate it with "fieshings," so she will try it in the "altogether," trusting to a little well-placed paint to help out. Pittsburg is gasping tonight like a fish out of water, and if she just dares—
It comes out that "The Bath" was to have been put on at the Nixon last Monday, but Manager Kirk was afraid of public opinion.

DIVORCE EVIL GROWS, FRENCH STATISTICS SAY

PARIS, Aug. 5 .- Since the revival of legal divorces in France in 1884, there has been such an increase in the number of those who have severed their marriage bonds that publicists are wondering where it will stop. In 1884 there were 1,879 divorces; twenty years later the mber was 14,692; last year there were 46,224. In the statistics just issued by the ministry of jutice, it is, however, noteworthy that by far the greatest proportion of divorces has been granted on the score of cruelty and the like.

SUMMER OPERA AT GLEN ECHO.

Glen Echo Park is to have a short season of light opera beginning tonight and continuing each evening during the week. Gilbert and Sullivan's beautiful fairy opera, "Iolanthe," will be the attraction. This sprightly opera has not been seen in this section for a number of years, and is comparatively new to of years, and is comparatively new to the music-loving public. It abounds in picturesque scenic effects and gorgeous costumes, which have been especially designed for this production. The man-agement has secured a competent com-pany of soloists, and together with the large chorus, a fine performance may the expected.
